Missions

Jeff and Sonya Kilmartin in Cameroon. They are still 'displaced' due to the ongoing unrest in the Northwest Region of the country and now other missionaries are being evacuated from that area too. Sonya is currently in Nigeria working to establish a medical clinic & Jeff is continuing with hospital & prison ministry in Banyo. Please also pray for good progress in their language studies.

Pray for our local ministries: Betty Andrews (CEF) KidsZone clubs; Stephen Swan (YFC) Breakfast clubs & Drop Ins; Derek Joyce (IVF) Bible study at UNBC & Alpha at CNC.

Camp Falcon Rock in Romania: Paul & Tanya Gericke & Vern and Gloria Wagner ask that we pray for safety for those working on the cabins; planning, permits & funding for the lodge; more workers to help with the projects already on the go. (Details on the board in the foyer)

Other Ministries

Shelters

The colder weather has arrived and warm winter adult clothing is urgently needed for the downtown shelters: coats, boots, gloves and toques in good, clean condition with all buttons and zippers working. Socks and shoes are always needed year round. Please contact Rosemary 250-964-1854.

Sermon Notes
Pastor Curtis Reimer
“To the Church in Smyrna”
Scripture: Revelation 2:8-11 (Page 992 in the brown Bibles)

January 20, 2019

Welcome to College Heights Baptist Church

In Revelation 2: 10 we read:

“.....Be faithful even to the point of death, and I will you
life as your victor’s crown.”

“I am only one person, but with God’s help I can make a difference. I can faithfully dedicate myself to the unique task for which He calls me, whether it is binding up the wounded, encouraging the weary, or challenging the prejudices of others. I can leave the results up to God.”
